

William Cary Bazley

William Cary Bazley died suddenly at his home in Seattle on September 6 at the age of 43. Cary was the son of Karen and William Bazley of Duxbury.

Cary graduated from Derby Academy, Duxbury High School and Brown University. He moved to Seattle in 1996 and worked at Amazon.com for seven years. At the time of his death, he was employed at Microsoft where he was a Principle Group Program Manager for the advertising and business intelligence teams that created the Microsoft on-line store.

His friends and business associates loved his warmth, his quirky sense of humor, and the fact that he never took himself too seriously. Cary was a voracious reader. There was always a stack of books beside his reading chair on a wide range of subjects.

Cary was the happiest when he was home with his family, reading stories to his daughter, or playing with his dog Izzy.

Cary was the loving husband of Pinda Ratanachan Bazley and father of Ellie Isabelle Bazley. He was looking forward to welcoming a second child, a son, in late October. Cary is survived by his parents and his sister Amy Elizabeth Bazley and her husband and three children of Portland, OR. He is also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, October 4 at 2 p.m. at Pilgrim Church, Washington Street, Duxbury.
